

Corporate/M&A

“ The Firm

Hughes Hubbard’s corporate practice encompasses the full scope of corporate work, including acquisitions of public and private companies, hostile takeovers, proxy fights, LBOs, special committee representations, auction bids and joint ventures, and represents large corporations and private equity players. On the corporate side, the team is especially skilled in representing Fortune 500 companies such as CBS, Newscorp and Delta

“The team is especially skilled in representing Fortune 500 companies.”

Sources say: “They have represented us masterfully.”

for Nortel Networks on the $915 million asset sale of Nortel’s Enterprise Solutions business to Avaya, and representing private equity fund Czura Thornton in its acquisition of the global clinical laboratory testing and cardiac services business of MDS. Sources say: ‘They have represented us masterfully; they have a great command of the area, and are very easy to work with.’

—Chambers USA 2010

Air Lines; foreign parties involved in cross-border transactions are also another source of work, and the firm undertakes a significant amount of Latin American mandates. Recent highlights include acting for the joint administrators

Hughes
Critical matters. Critical thinking.®
Hubbard