

Hughes Hubbard Honored for HIV/AIDS Project

Hughes Hubbard will be honored for its work in the HIV/AIDS Project by the Legal Aid Society Dec. 1 at its 2005 Pro Bono Awards ceremony.

“Over the years, Hughes Hubbard has made a tremendous difference in the lives of individuals suffering from HIV/AIDS and their families,” Patricia Hynes, chair of the Legal Aid Society board, wrote in a letter to Vilia Hayes, who along with Damon Rowe oversees the Legal Aid Society-sponsored HIV/AIDS Project at Beth Israel Medical Center.

The project represents individuals dealing with HIV/AIDS. Intake occurs bi-monthly at the Peter Kruger Clinic at Beth Israel Hospital.

The Honorable Judith S. Kaye, Chief Judge of the State of New York, will preside over the event, which will be held from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at the offices of Sherman & Sterling, 599 Lexington Ave.
