Beinecke in Crain's "Hall of Fame"

Candace Beinecke was selected by Crain's New York Business to be in the publication's 25th Anniversary Issue Hall of Fame of New York executives whose contributions in and beyond business changed the city, published on July 1. The list of 25 inductees includes David Rockefeller, Michael Bloomberg and Henry Kravis. Crain's placed Candace in its "Trailblazers" category.

To compile the list, Crain's considered two principal criteria: making a contribution beyond business alone and having been active in business during some part of the past 25 years. Crain's named Candace one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" in 2009 and one of the "100 Most Influential Women in New York City" in 2007.
