All have achievements we could quantify: They are leading billion-dollar deals or financings, first-chairing high-stakes litigation, arguing appeals, or managing important firm clients.

AMY G. DULIN

HUGHES HUBBARD & REED

HSBC SECURITIES (USA) INC. managing director Katia Bouazza praises Dulin, the bank's regular outside counsel for complex cross-border lending transactions, for bringing more than just legal acumen to the table; Dulin brings a "keen commercial understanding of what it takes to close the deal," she says. Dulin, co-chair of the firm's financial services group and a key member of its Latin America practice, regularly coordinates a massive number of players: One loan in 2007 for which she represented joint lead arrangers, involved 34 banks — and paved the way for Brazil-based Gerdau S.A.'s $4.2 billion acquisition of Texas's Chaparral Steel Company. In September, BNP Paribas tapped her to help in a deal involving 25 banks that provided $1 billion in secured loans to Brazil's Embraer S.A.
